WEB PRESS CORPORATION NOTES 3RD QUARTER SALES

Quad-Stack units have been purchased by six domestic and two international companies since August, 2007.

Brehm Communications, has purchased an additional Quad-Stack for its Bullhead City, Arizona location (News West Publishing) and a Quad-Stack to be added to a Goss Community line at its Princeton, Indiana press, (Princeton Publishing).

News West publishes the Mohave Daily News, the Laughlin, Nevada Times, Needles Desert Star, Valley Views, Colorado River Weekender, Laughlin Entertainer weeklies, Clippin' The River, Colorado River Real Estate Magazine and the Booster Advertiser.

Princeton Publishing produces the Princeton Daily Clarion and The Oakland City Journal, as well as two non-subscriber shoppers -- the Journal Dollar Saver and Gibson County Today. The Princeton plant is kept busy nearly 24 hours a day, utilizing three shifts of employees. In addition to its own newspapers and special sections, Princeton Publishing's presses are responsible for printing the Warrick Publications, as well as a host of other print jobs such as grocery inserts, real estate sections and special publications.

Eagle Newspapers (Oregon) has purchased two Quad-Stack units to replace some existing 4 high towers in its Goss Community press line at Eagle Web Press in Salem, Oregon. The units will be equipped with UV capability. Managers from the newspaper group were impressed with the low wastage numbers achieved by the Quad-Stack at its Hood River, Oregon location as compared to the Community towers currently used in Salem.

Quad-Stack units have also been ordered by Arkansas Valley Publishing, Salida, Colorado (the second for addition to its Community line), Western Web & Graphics, Tucson, Arizona (for addition to a WPC line), And Central Florida Publishing, Sanford, Florida (for addition to a Harris line).

The first Quad-Stack to enter the country of Vietnam will be installed at Le Quang Loc in Ho Chi Minh City. LQL's anchor publication is Tuoi Tre Newspaper, the voice of the Youth Union of HCMC. In addition, they print publications for the Saigon Times Group, HCMC Law Newspaper, Popular Sciences Newspaper, the products of Khan Quang Do Newspaper, Fine Arts Magazine, and Nice House Magazine.

An early fourth quarter order came in from Media Trust, Abuja, Nigeria, who have ordered an additional Quad-Stack and folder to enhance the Quad-Stack UPM press line ordered several years ago.
